Hullabaloo22 Schools Celebration

Where? DanceEast

When? Thursday 9 June

A fantastic opportunity for Ipswich schools to come together and perform at the world-class Jerwood DanceHouse on the waterfront. The Hullabaloo22 Schools Celebration will give young people the platform to celebrate their identity and creativity through dance.

We are looking for Ipswich Primary and Secondary schools to be part of this event and will be offering a 5-10 minute performance slot to each school (with a total show running time of approx. 1 hour), therefore, capacity is limited, and spaces will be offered to schools on a first-come, first-served basis.

On the day, schools will be expected to be at DanceEast for the whole afternoon (from after lunch onwards) to take part in technical rehearsals and a dress rehearsal. It is also intended that we will provide some fun, creative workshops for school groups to participate in as well.

A public performance will take place at 6.30pm (TBC) for friends, family and colleagues.
